

Hockaday Museum of Art Presents
Guest Instructor - Lisa Schaus
Introduction To Pastel Painting
Saturday, November 5, 2005

Lisa has lived in the Flathead Valley since 1982 and painted in the mediums of watercolor, pastel, oil, and mixed media techniques. She studied at Bennington College and the State University of New York at Albany. Lisa also was an art facilitator for Jeanne Hamilton for many years. She has attended workshops by many artists, among them Frank Webb, Charles Reid, Joe Abbrescia, and Mark Ogle. Her work covers a broad range of styles and techniques that has given her the opportunity to explore many areas of self-expression. Lisa's landscape painting is what most of her collectors have gravitated toward, and so the workshop will include landscape rendering, as well as a direct approach to other subject matter. Lisa's work can be viewed at www.willowwindstudio.com
